HOWELL CARRIES SALT LAKE COUNTY

Majority of Delegates Elected Last Night for Present Congressman.

THE PRIMARIES ARE WARM

Republicans Turn Out All Over City and County, Naming Delegates to State Convention.

At primaries held in every voting district of Salt Lake county last night, Republicans elected 200 delegates to the state convention which will be held at Ogden Monday.

It is claimed by friends of Congressman Joseph Howell, who is seeking reelection, that he carried a majority of the Salt Lake delegation.

The primaries were more than ordinarily well attended, and great interest was shown in the city as well as in the county, and the attendance at each primary was abnormally large.

DEMOCRATIC COUNTY PLATFORM

THE Democrats of Salt Lake county, in convention assembled, endorse the platform adopted by their party's state convention at Provo, and direct the attention to its declarations on national and state questions, and particularly those favoring:

The organization and arbitration for better protection of labor, and also a workingman's compensation act;

A direct primary law and the initiative and referendum, together with an act to prevent corrupt practice in all elections;

An efficient and practical road law; The maintenance of our school systems in their highest efficiency;

A commission form of government for cities;

Regulating the deposit and care of all public funds;

Prohibiting the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors; and,

For better regulation of local affairs.

We favor a complete reorganization of the administration of public business in Salt Lake county in the interest of economy and efficiency.

We hold that a public office is a grave responsibility, and not a private snap or a family trust.

We demand the abolition of all unnecessary offices, both elective and appointive, now being used as sinecures for ward heelers and relations.

We favor the selection of competent taxpayers for public employment, preference being given to heads of families or those dependent upon their own exertions for a livelihood.

We believe the strict enforcement of individual responsibility on the part of every public servant, especially those entrusted with the disbursement or handling of public money.

We favor the adoption of a just and equitable system for the equalization of all taxes—as between classes of the community—individuals as well as corporations, and due and proper publicity in all official acts.

We favor the improvement and simplification of all county records, preventing the unnecessary increase thereof, with rigid regulations for their care and preservation.

We favor the enforcement of all sanitary laws whereby the public health may be preserved.

We favor a reapportionment of senators and representatives in the state legislature based upon the federal census of 1910, and the division of Salt Lake county into separate representative districts for the election of each representative in the legislature to which the county shall be entitled by such apportionment.

We denounce the graft of the Republican county commissioners in converting nearly six thousand dollars of the public funds and giving the same to their party organ under the pretense of paying for publishing the delinquent tax list, and for delaying the trial of the suit now pending in the district court to recover the money thus unlawfully appropriated from the public treasury.

We denounce the administration of the American and Republican parties in the municipal affairs of Salt Lake City and county, respectively, in both of which, through graft and incompetency, taxes have been increased to a point beyond endurance, and offices have been multiplied and salaries increased.

J. Burton, Peter Hansen.

POLITICAL NOTES.

An important meeting of the Republican county committee will be held at 3 o'clock this afternoon in the court room of Judge George G. Armstrong at the city and county building and the presence of every member is expected.

Among the candidates for county commissioner announced after the state primaries are Major H. P. Myton of Granite and James G. McAllister of the First precinct.

Senator Rees Smoot will be temporary chairman of the Republican state convention at Ogden Monday.

A meeting of the Republican state committee will be held at the Weber club, Ogden, at 10 o'clock Monday morning.

Moses C. Davis is out for the nomination for county attorney at the Republican convention.

The Women's Democratic club will meet in the office of James H. Moyle, Deseret National bank building, Wednesday night at 7:30 o'clock. The president asks that all Democratic women of Salt Lake attend.

A meeting of the newly elected members of the Democratic county committee will probably be held today for the purpose of organizing to elect a new chairman to succeed Ben T. Lloyd.

Following the Republican primaries in the Odd Fellows hall at Garfield last evening, the organization of the Garfield Young People's Republican club was effected, made up of fifty residents of the district. The officers are: W. L. Raymond, president; M. F. Hobin, vice president; George Denton, secretary, and R. B. Quay, treasurer.

STEAM ROLLER INTO A BOULDER

Frank Swenson Still Running for Treasurer, Regardless of Denials Made.

The American county convention will be held today at the Colonial theatre, beginning at 10 o'clock this morning, with A. J. Weber as temporary chairman. Candidates will be nominated for all county offices, including ten members of the lower house and two candidates for the state senate.

The steam-roller sent out by the party organization yesterday made another attempt to flatten out the chances of Frank Swenson, candidate for treasurer, winding up by saying that he was out of the race. Nevertheless, Mr. Swenson had his ballots printed, his name will go before the convention today and, unless the party whip cracks harder and more effectively than it had up to a late hour last night, he will be nominated.

The inner circle tried to drag W. F. Adams into the race for treasurer, but he sidestepped it with the remark that he would have no politics in his. Charles Reed was induced by the organization to get into the race, and he will be making a fight on the floor of the convention today.

Other Candidates Out. It is quite likely that George Jay Gibson will be nominated for county attorney, although there are other names. A peculiarity of the race for the attorneyship this season is that the name of A. J. Weber does not grace the list of candidates.

The fight for the clerkship nomination brings out three women and one man. A. D. McGuire has as his opponents, Mrs. Olive M. Havens, Mrs. Tom D. Pitt and Mrs. G. M. Mullin. Most of the strength seems to lie in Mrs. Havens, and while there are few women among the delegates, there is a popular demand to put a woman into the race, since the success of Mrs. Margaret Witche of two years ago.

In the race for sheriff, there are A. J. Sharon and Joseph Raleigh, with Roderick McKenzie skimming along on the crest of his friends' enthusiasm and encouragement. The real fight so far has been between Sharon and Raleigh, with the former having a bit the best of it, but it is said that McKenzie, who was chief of police until it was discovered he wasn't even a citizen, has developed a great deal of strength.

State Convention Tonight. For the other offices, there will be no particular contest.

Tonight, the state convention will be held, no delegates having been elected. The convention will be a mass affair, in which orators will play the greatest part. Candidates will be nominated for Congress and Justice of the Supreme court.

TRAINS TO CONVENTION.

Trains running to Ogden for the state convention are: Oregon Short Line, 7 a. m., 8 a. m., 8:45 a. m.; Denver & Rio Grande, 10:25 a. m. The round trip fare from Salt Lake is $1. The train leaving over the Short Line at 8:45 is known as the Ogden flyer and will make the trip in 45 minutes. Utah county delegates will go to the convention on a special Salt Lake Route train reaching Salt Lake at 10:20 and continuing on a Short Line special immediately afterward.

GOOD POSITIONS. Those who take a course at Henager's Business College are sure of a good position. New students may enroll at any time.

BAMBERGER WINS FIGHT IN CAUCUS

Routs George F. Goodwin From Place on Committee on Platform.

At the meeting of the American party delegates of the Fifth precinct for the selection of committeemen at the city court chambers last night, Herman Bamberger won a vigorous fight for committeeman on platform and resolutions, because of being uncertain regarding policies of George F. Goodwin, the initial candidate. Mr. Bamberger won by a comfortable margin. He said he would not divulge his reasons for contesting the selection of Goodwin.

Mr. Bamberger, precinct chairman, called the meeting of the delegates to order. A. F. Doremus was chosen temporary chairman, and T. H. Lynch, secretary, Mark Reedall and Charles Moysten Owen were chosen county committeemen, and Charles Weaver, committeeman on credentials. The selection of a committeeman on permanent organization called for a vigorous contest, the nominees being S. B. Westerfield, W. O. Norrell and W. F. Adams.

Norrell and Adams withdrew after the first ballot. Westerfield's selection being unanimous.

W. J. Barrett, George F. Goodwin, David Hempstead and Herman Bamberger were in the race for committeeman on platform and resolutions. It required three ballots to settle the contention, Mr. Bamberger finally getting the required number of votes. W. F. Adams was chosen precinct chairman, George Evans and T. H. Lynch were nominated for secretary, but their names were later withdrawn on grounds that it was the duty of the chair to select his own secretary. Mr. Adams made no selection last night.

William Schoppe was elected American party chairman for the First precinct at a caucus held in the civil division of the city court last night. Other elections at the meeting were as follows: Members of county committee—H. F. Heath and Walter Weeks; member of committee on organization and order of business—George M. Sullivan; member of committee on platform and resolutions—E. B. Christopherson; member of committee on credentials—J. B. Moreton.
